Tableau Storyboard Structure (4-Point Narrative)

The Tableau Story is designed as a guided executive presentation tailored for the three distinct stakeholder personas. It translates the 9 core analytical visuals into a cohesive business narrative.

Story Point / Slide Title	Target Persona	Key Visuals & Narrative Description
Story Point 1: Executive Market Summary	All Stakeholders & Board Members	Visuals: Main Clean Dashboard (Top Sales, Key Geographies, Battery Types Overview). Narrative: Introduces the current state of the global EV market, total sales volume, and overall market leaders. Sets the stage for deeper strategic analysis.
Story Point 3: David's Competitive Landscape	Business Intelligence Manager (David)	Visuals: Packed Bubble Chart (Market Share by Manufacturer), Filled Geographic Map (Global Manufacturing Hubs). Narrative: Highlights which

		manufacturers dominate the global market, pinpointing critical geographic production hubs and supply chain concentrations.
Story Point 4: Dr. Williams's Battery Technology Trends	Research Analyst (Sarah)	Visuals: Scatter Plot (Capacity vs. Range), 100% Stacked Bar (Battery Type by Segment). Narrative: Deep-dives into current battery chemistries (LFP, NMC) and future innovations (Solid-State). Demonstrates the direct correlation between battery capacity (kWh) and driving range efficiency.
